

NEW PUBLICATION OF CPU

The new edition of the most popular publication of Council of Power Utilities titled “Directory of Key Personnel in the ENERGY, WATER & COMMUNICATION INDUSTRY 2008-09” is under print. The publication contains the names, designation, addresses, telephone numbers, fax numbers of key personnel in the power utilities, organizations involved in energy & water resources development and communication industry. The publication is appreciated for the unique feature that it contains consolidated information at one source. It also helps executives and administrators for close interaction with their counterparts and quick monitoring of the status of developmental activities in these sectors for quick management decision. The unique feature of the publication is that it saves time of the senior level executives. The past issues of publication were greatly appreciated and there were persistent requests to the Council of Power Utilities to regularly bring out the updated editions of this publication.

The publication, inclusive of postage, is priced at Rs.2500/- (Rupees two thousand five hundred only) per copy. For early birds (up to 31.12.2008) Rs.2,000/- (Rupees two thousand) per copy. 20% discount is offered on purchase of 3 or more copies of publication at a time.

The publication can be obtained from the office of Council of Power Utilities A-2/158, Janakpuri, New Delhi 110058, India on payment in cash or by Demand Draft drawn in favour of COUNCIL OF POWER UTILITIES payable on any Bank in Delhi/New Delhi.
